Yale Recovers from Slump and Whips Princeton in Hard Fought Game

MINISTERS MAKE GOOD SHOWING AGAINST THE RED AND BLACK ELEVEN

The Pennsylvanians Score only Touchdown on a Forward Pass.

"JIMMY" HEAVENER STARS

His Long Punts and Great Defensive Playing Save Wesleyan Number of Times.

Bob Folwell and the Washington and Jefferson gridders made their second invasion of West Virginia today and this time left the field of play with a scalp on their belt. In a beautifully played game, featured by slashing end runs and long forward passes Wesleyan went down to defeat, to the tune of 7-3, before the aggregation from Little Washington. Three thousand football fans, the Wesleyan rooters predominating, watched the two teams play for four fifteen minute periods at Norwood park here today.

The day was an ideal one for football. The rain of Friday put the field in a soggy condition and interfered with the staging of fast football, but in spite of this both teams displayed spurts of forward passing with a considerable degree of success. Those who follow football closely and pretend to be familiar with the style of playing of every team between the Atlantic and Pacific coast were more or less surprised when Washington and Jefferson failed to depend upon the aerial route for a victory. The short lobb over the center of the line that the Red and Black has used with good effect this year was not used more than three times. Instead Little Washington gridders used McCreight in slashing end runs and then sandwiched an occasional long forward pass. It was the latter brand of football that put the Red and Black within striking distance of the Wesleyan goal and it was again the same brand that netted the only touchdown of the game.

W. & J. Inning.
At 3:09 o'clock the big event of the day was called. The preliminary squabble between Davis and Elkins and Marshall was no sooner ended until Captain Kellison, of the big Wesleyan aggregation, led his team upon the field. The boys ran through a snappy practice and had retired to the sidelines before Washington and Jefferson, headed by Captain Wesbecher, made its appearance. Both teams got a good round of applause at its appearance.

Although Wesleyan played clean and consistent football during the first half it was outclassed by the Red and Black. The Wesleyan backs were unable to advance the ball consistently and the forward passes attempted flailed.

McCreight, the big Wash-Jeff fullback, was the bright star during the first half. Time after time he advanced the ball by slashing end runs. The Red and Black interference completely blocked the Wesleyan wings and McCreight was usually good for ten or twenty yards every time he ran the Wesleyan ends. Washington and Jefferson, however, was unable to do anything against the stonewall defense of Wesleyan's line.

It was near the end of the second quarter that the first score of the game came. The Red and Black had advanced the ball steadily down the field by end runs and forward passes. The teams lined up on Wesleyan's twenty yard line and by a neatly executed forward pass to Hayman, the speedy W. & J. end, raced across for the first touchdown.

A Battle Royal.
Wesleyan came back strong in the second half. It was not until the fourth period, however, that Wesleyan began to look dangerous. Time after time they gained consistently and at one stage of the game looked like they were about to push the pigskin over for a touchdown. However, the Wesleyan boys could do, though, was to attempt a field goal. On the twenty-third yard line Captain Kellison fell back for a field goal and was successful. The ball soared high and directly between the two uprights.

Wesleyan then seemed to come into its own and for several minutes completely rushed Washington and Jefferson off its feet. The spurt was short lived, however, and when the fourth quarter closed the Red and Black had the ball in its possession and were on Wesleyan's twenty yard line.

"Jimmy" Heavener, a former Clarksburg high school star, did Wesleyan's punting and completely outclassed Heyman for Washington and Jefferson. On a safe estimate Heyman's punts did not average more than thirty yards, while Heavener's easily averaged forty. There was considerable fumbling during the last half, with the Red and Black the worse offenders. Several times Folwell's proteges lost the ball after substantial gains by heartbreaking fumbles.

For Washington and Jefferson McCreight was the star of the day. Captain Wesbecher played a powerful game in the line. For Wesleyan Jacobs, Heavener and Kellison outshone over their team mates.

GENERALS PLAY HARD FOUGHT GAME

Against the Cornell Team but Are Defeated by Score of 40 to 21.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 13.—With the score 21 to 7 against them, in the second period, Cornell came back at Washington and Lee today, and when the final whistle blew, led the plucky Virginians by 40 to 21. The game, although loosely played by Cornell in the first period, was full of thrills.

Washington and Lee got the jump on the Ithacans in the first period, when Collins fumbled the first kick off and Washington and Lee recovered the ball on Cornell's fifteen yard line. Bagley and John Barrett executed two forward passes, resulting in a touchdown. A few minutes later Cornell, after receiving the kickoff, rushed the ball to the Washington and Lee thirty yard line and Captain Barrett ran thirty yards for the tying score. Washington and Lee scored again a few minutes later when John Barrett, on receiving the kickoff ran for a touchdown, making the score 14 to 7 in favor of the visitors. Collins's fumble of a punt in the second period resulted in Washington and Lee's third touchdown. Sweetland scored on a short run. Then Cornell woke up. Its backfield battered the Washington and Lee line and Captain Barrett made two touchdowns, making the score at the end of the first half 21 to 20 in favor of the southerners. In the third period, Washington and Lee was again helpless against Captain Barrett and he marched from Cornell's five yard line for a touchdown, using straight football. Ripping the Washington and Lee line for long gains in the fourth period, Collins and Barrett each scored.

Captain Dunn Oberlin's Right End Has Knee Fractured in Last Period.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13.—Ohio state's football team won from Oberlin today 25 to 0. Coach Wilcox's men by things their own way throughout the contest. Though held scoreless in the first and fourth periods they made long gains through the visitor's line and around their ends. Oberlin's offensive was effective only in the last quarter when four first downs were made chiefly by use of the forward pass.

Near the end of the second half, J. Dunn, Oberlin's right end and captain, was carried from the field with a fractured knee.

BROWN DEFEATED BY HARVARD'S AUBURN LINE

Crossed for First Time in Two Years by a Southern Eleven.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 13.—Auburn's all but undisputed reign of the past two years over southern gridirons ended today when Vanderbilt upset recent football traditions and won from the Alabama platoon here 17 to 0. Not in two years had the Auburn line been crossed. The men from Tennessee outlasted their opponents in all respects and only once was the Vanderbilt goal in danger.

With Georgia and Georgia Tech playing a nothing to nothing game in Atlanta today, Vanderbilt's victory was looked upon as practically deciding football supremacy in the territory of the southern intercollegiate athletic association. This association does not include Virginia, Auburn already had defeated Georgia, but has yet to play Tech.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 13.—The Army won from Maine today 24 to 0 in a hard fought game. The visitors proved to be weaker than was expected and the Army made many substitutions throughout the game.

Oliphant, the former Purdue star, was again the brilliant performer for the Cadets. He was removed during the third quarter to make room for a substitute, but, at the time of his retirement, he had tallied all the Army's points, 17, at that period of the play.

MICHIGAN AND PENNA PLAY TIE GAME

Westerners Are Outplayed but Pennsylvania Can Not Gain at Opportune Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—Pennsylvania and Michigan fought their annual football battle on Franklin field today and neither side was able to score. Both teams put up fairly good football. The playing most of the time was spirited and abounded in open field work. Pennsylvania had more chances to score than Michigan, but make progress consistently through their always braced and the offense was able to stave the defeat. The Pennsylvania got within scoring distance about half a dozen times and on three of these occasions tried to kick goals. Guernsey Breaks Record When He Drop Kicks Field Goal from Center of Field.

WAY MAKES LONG RUN For Touchdown When Tibbott Fumbles Ball Close to the Blue Goal Line.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 13.—Rising phoenix-like from the ashes of a disastrous preliminary football season, the Yale eleven won from Princeton here this afternoon, 13 to 7. No gridiron classic of recent years has furnished greater thrills, individual playing prowess or form ups than this surprising triumph of the blue over the orange and black. It was a case of a powerful football combination just beginning to find itself, overwhelming by brute strength an eleven far more finished in playing tactics, but lacking the ability to cope with a Yale eleven fighting desperately. As at team, the Princeton machine was superior to the blue, but the smooth Tiger juggernaut was ripped apart by a bulldog squad gone berserk.

Gridiron heroes rose and fell during the struggle, but none reached the heights attained by Otis L. Guernsey, whose clever field goal kicking paved the way for a Yale victory. Twice in the second period Guernsey drove the ball through the Tiger goal posts when Captain Wilson, of the Yale team found that the eleven as a whole was unequal to the task of taking the spheroid across the opponent's line. Both drop kicks were made from near midfield and the performance of the Greenwich, Conn., player won him a place, the kicking star of football.

Way Plays Star Game.

"Play" Way, pitcher of the blue baseball team, shared the glory of victory with Guernsey for it was his fortune to scoop up a fumbled punt by Tibbott and race across the goal line for Yale's only touchdown of the game that the first that the Elis have made in the past two contests. May's run was one of the most spectacular features of a struggle that bristled with startling plays and tonight, Guernsey, Captain Wilson and Emergency Coach Tom Shevlin are the heroes of both town and gown. For Princeton nothing remains but the memory of a season that started in a blaze of glory and closed in the bitterness of unexpected defeat by both Yale and Harvard. Close to 60,000 spectators thronged into the Yale football area. The weather and the gridiron conditions were perfect.

From the opening of the game it was seen that the Elis had been keyed up to do or die stage of football and they assailed the Princeton warriors like wildmen, making up in individual power and brilliancy what they lacked in team work and strategy.

Yale Scores First.

The ball was carried or kicked up and down the gridiron throughout the first quarter without decided advantage for either team, although Yale showed confidence and increase in longer held Princeton scoreless. With the beginning of the second period, the Elis tried a sustained attack and carried the ball across midfield by line plunging. Shifting to a forward pass advance, they found the Tiger unawed by the move, and after the ball had been grounded without gain, Guernsey kicked his first field goal of the day from his own forty-six yard line. For the full forty-five yards the spheroid sailed straight and true for the Princeton goal, and as it went over the bar, in one of the longest kicks in the history of football, the blue cohorts rose and waved their colors. Almost immediately Guernsey duplicated the feat, the second field goal coming so quickly that it left the Nassau contingent smarting by its suddenness. On Princeton's kickoff, Captain Wilson had run the ball back to midfield, and four more rushes through the demoralized opponents placed the ball inside Princeton's thirty-yard line. Here the Tigers set themselves and held Yale so that again Captain Wilson was forced to call on Guernsey for a drop kick, and the latter, standing on the thirty-six yard line, hoisted this ball between the goal bars.

Princeton Scores Touchdown.

Stung into fury, Princeton turned on the blue and soon carried the pigskin to inside the Yale ten yard line. In their eagerness the Tigers were detected holding and set back fifteen yards, but quickly regained the lost distance with a perfectly executed forward pass. Short plunges and passes placed the ball close to the Yale line.

Twice the Blue had a chance to gain the spheroid on downs and each time the Princeton runner slipped away for further gains, until the Elis were finally forced to their own goal. They fought like vikings but to no effect.

Foot by foot the Tigers fought their way into the blue defense, and after a final smash and shove, Redeye Tarts untangled the mass of players.
